

“If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.” Mark 4: 23

Good morning, men!

Ears have only one purpose: to hear. Since we are created by the Heavenly Father, we can imagine He wants us to listen to Him most of all. As we learn to listen to Him, more and more our lives begin to transform. It makes sense.

Ever notice when you listen to angry people you begin to get angrier? Ever notice when you listen to anxious people all of the sudden your blood pressure elevates and your hair seems to jump out of your head? Ever notice when you are so busy thinking about what you’re going to say next you’re not truly listening to what your wife is saying to you right now? How does that work out!

So what happens to us when we learn to listen more and more to the Prince of Peace? What happens when we truly listen to the One Who is not anxious about anything? What happens when we listen to our Heavenly Father, Who is beyond every definition of patient with us?

Jesus is saying to us today: “If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

What is the Father saying to you today? Ask Him to speak to you, and then listen. I believe you will hear from our Father. If you feel like sharing what you hear Him say to you, please email me back.

May the Father be glorified through sons who truly listen to Him!

Your brother on the Journey,

Moe Redding
